Entry Form - The Entry Form must be completed for each horse-and-rider combination via www.eurorodeo.eu.

The Entry Form shall be considered valid only upon timely submission of all documents listed below, in accordance with the conditions stated herein.

The rider is required to submit the Entry Form no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the show date.

Any late entry will be subject to a penalty.

If a rider withdraws from a class during the show, the entry fee shall not be refunded.

By submitting the Entry Form, both the horse owner and the rider confirm that the horse is in good health, does not suffer from any transmissible disease, and has not recently been exposed to an environment with infectious disease occurrence.

The owner of each horse participating in an NCHA Show must:

1. be a current member of NCHA / 4NCHA, and
2. submit a horse registration certificate listing the owner accordingly.

If the ownership transfer has not been completed prior to the show, the owner is obliged to complete the ownership transfer with the breed registry as soon as possible.

Failure to do so may result in penalties imposed by NCHA.

Participation in the show is entirely at the participant's own risk.

The organizer assumes no liability of any kind.

Horse owners must hold valid third-party liability insurance.

Each horse owner or rider is required to present the horse's health certificate immediately upon arrival at the show grounds to the show organizer or veterinarian.

By submitting the Entry Form, I hereby confirm my agreement with all of the above conditions and undertake to comply with the rules of the show organizer, which are in force during this show.

Stabling - Stalls are available from Friday to Sunday at a price of EUR 110 per stall.

Catering - Food and beverages will be available all day at the buffet.

Accommodation - Ranch 13 offers stylish accommodation in various categories: <https://www.ranch13.sk/ubytovanie-ranch13>

Other Conditions - Show participants, horse owners, accompanying team members, and visitors are required to follow the instructions of the show organizer, organizing staff, and general safety regulations.

The show is governed by:

- the 2026 NCHA Official Handbook of Rules and Regulations, available at the show office and at www.nchacutting.com, and
- the approved animal welfare regulations.

No contractual relationship is established between the show organizer and visitors, participants, and/or horse owners.

Subject to compliance with the Slovak Civil Code, the venue owner bears responsibility for damage to items brought into or stored on the premises.

Stabling within the venue is permitted only with the approval of the responsible person.

The venue is not guarded, therefore storage areas for equipment (e.g. saddles) must be explicitly designated and marked.

The venue owner reserves the right to remove vehicles used for overnight stays.

All dogs must be kept on a leash at all times during the show.

Participants, horse owners, accompanying teams, and visitors release the organizer and its team from any liability for:

- injuries,
- theft,
- loss or damage of property (including animals),
- non-material damages,
except in cases where liability cannot be excluded under applicable law.

Liability for damage caused by an animal or object rests with the person responsible for that animal or object.

Liability for damage caused by a person rests with the individual who caused the damage or their legal representative.

Horse owners are strongly recommended to obtain their own insurance.

Members of the organizing team have the right to:

- establish rules for participants and visitors,
- expel any person from the show grounds who violates show rules or endangers people or animals.
This right also applies to the judge.
